

Our Budget 2026 story received further amplification through its feature in Construction Week Online, prominently highlighting insights from Mr. Prashant Sharma, NAREDCO.

The coverage reflects strong media interest in industry-led perspectives on demand sustainability, policy continuity, and long-term growth enablers for the real estate sector, reinforcing the strength and credibility of our budget narrative across influential construction and real estate platforms.